This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

"2. Resolved, that our Presbyteries be recommended to take such action within their respective bounds, that, either by themselves, or by the aid of the Home Missionary Society, new churches may be organized wherever circumstances will permit; and the stated preaching of the Gospel be supplied in Churches now destitute, as speedily as possible.

"3. Resolved, That it be recommended to all our churches, to strive earnestly to render our religious institutions permanent, by the erection of Church edifices, and the settlement of pastors whenever this can be done; and in this work the older and wealthier churches ought to co-operate with the younger and feebler.

"4. Resolved, That the searching out and bringing forward of young men, of hopeful piety and talent, as candidates for the Gospel Ministry is an integral and essential part of the Missionary enterprise; and, as such, demands the constant vigilance and untiring efforts of the Ministers and Elders of our churches in all parts of the land."

At 12 o'clock, the Assembly proceeded to hear the Report of the Committee to whom were referred the Memorials on the subject of Slavery.

The Rev. Charles H. Read offered the following Resolutions, in reference to the American and Foreign Christian Union, which were adopted:

"Whereas, the multiplication of benevolent organizations, having substantially the same end, tends to the embarrassment of the churches, and also to the hindrance of the prosperity of other and kindred institutions: And whereas, in the providence of God among the Papal nations of Europe, and also among the people of that communion in this country, many doors are now open for the diffusion of the principles of religious liberty, and a pure and evangelical Christianity,—Therefore,

"Resolved, 1. That this Assembly have learned with much satisfaction that the three Societies, viz., The Christian Alliance, the American Protestant, and the Foreign Evangelical, whose objects, in relation to the evangelization of the Papal population of this country and of Europe, are substantially identical, have been merged in one society, known as the American and Foreign Christian Union, thereby reducing the expenses, and augmenting the efficiency of this department of Christian benevolence.

"Resolved, 2. That this Assembly approve of the objects of the American and Foreign Christian Union, as set forth in its Constitution, viz., to diffuse and promote the principles of religious liberty, and a pure and evangelical Christianity both at home and abroad, wherever a corrupted Christianity exists; and do cordially commend it to the confidence and patronage of the churches under their care, and to the Christian community.

"Resolved, 3. That in view of the encouragements arising from past success and prospective usefulness, in making known the pure gospel to the Papal population of this country and of Europe, in the judgment of this Assembly, the American and Foreign Christian Union are called upon by the providence and word of God to put forth increased efforts in the work in which they are engaged."

The committee on the Polity of the Church made a report in reference to the Answers of Presbyteries to the Overtures sent down by the last Assembly, which was adopted, and is as follows:

"It appears from the roll, that there are one hundred and two Presbyteries connected with the Assembly; that eighty-seven Presbyteries have sent up their answers to the first three Overtures, on the subject of the Limitation of Appeals, and fifteen have not: and that of these the following thirty Presbyteries have answered in the AFFIRMATIVE:—

"Delaware, Oswego, Cayuga, Geneva, Cortland, Chenango, North River, Erie, Grand River, Portage, Huron, Trumbull, Cleveland, Elyria, Maumee, Athens, Pataskala, Franklin, Scioto, Hamilton, Peoria, Belvidere, Lexington, Osage, Winchester, District of Columbia, Hanover, Holston, West Tennessee, and South Lexington.

"And the following fifty-seven Presbyteries have answered in the NEGATIVE:—

"Champlain, Troy, Columbia, St. Lawrence, Watertown, Utica, Onondaga, Tioga, Bath, Chemung, Ithaca, Pennsylvania, Genesee, Niagara, Buffalo, Hudson, Long Island, New-York Third, New-York Fourth, Brooklyn, Newark, Rockaway, Montrose, Wilmington, Philadelphia Third, Philadelphia Fourth, Harrisburgh, Meadville, Pittsburgh, Detroit, St. Joseph, Monroe, Marshall, Washtenaw, Kalamazoo, Cincinnati, Dayton, Salem, Madison, Crawfordsville, Indianapolis, Logansport, Fort Wayne, Schuyler, Alton, Des Moines, Ottawa, Galena, Chicago, St. Louis, Northern Missouri, Union, New River, Harmony, Providence, Shiloh, and Richland.

"That to the 4th Overture, on the subject of Complaints, the answers vary only by the addition of the Presbytery of Pataskala to the number of those answering in the Negative; thus making the number of Presbyteries replying in the AFFIRMATIVE to this Overture, twenty-nine; and in the NEGATIVE, fifty-eight.

"That to the 5th Overture, on the subject of Pro-re-nata Meetings of the Assembly, eighty-six Presbyteries have sent answers, the same as have replied to the other Overtures, with the exception of the Presbytery of Newark; and that of these only three Presbyteries have answered in the AFFIRMATIVE, viz., Champlain, Erie, and Hanover; the remaining eighty-three having answered in the NEGATIVE.

"That to the 6th Overture, on the subject of the Ratio of Representation in the Assembly, answers have been returned by eighty-four Presbyteries, the same as before, with the exception of the Presbyteries of Newark, Grand River and Huron; and that of these the following twenty-eight Presbyteries have answered in the AFFIRMATIVE, viz.:—Champlain, Delaware, Oswego, Geneva, Cortland, Bath, Hudson, North River, Long Island, Meadville, Portage, Trumbull, Cleveland, Maumee, Kalamazoo, Athens, Franklin, Scioto, Hamilton, Fort Wayne, Peoria, Belvidere, Lexington, Winchester, District of Columbia, Hanover, Holston, and South Lexington.

"And the following fifty-six Presbyteries have answered the same Overture in the NEGATIVE, viz:—

"Troy, Columbia, St. Lawrence, Watertown, Utica, Onondaga, Cayuga, Chenango, Tioga, Chemung, Ithaca, Pennsylvania, Genesee, Niagara, Buffalo, New-York Third, New-York Fourth, Brooklyn, Rockaway, Montrose, Wilmington, Philadelphia Third, Philadelphia Fourth, Harrisburgh, Erie, Pittsburgh, Elyria, Detroit, St. Joseph, Monroe, Marshall, Washtenaw, Pataskala, Cincinnati, Dayton, Salem, Madison, Crawfordsville, Indianapolis, Logansport, Schuyler, Alton, Des Moines, Ottawa, Galena, Chicago, St. Louis, Northern Missouri, Osage, Union, New River, Harmony, Providence, West Tennessee, Shiloh, and Richland."

The Assembly therefore declares, that a majority of the whole number of the Presbyteries has decided against each and all of the proposed changes in the Constitution. The Book, therefore, remains as in 1840; or as it was before the division of the Church.

A Letter was received from Mr. Henry Perkins, of Philadelphia, in reference to a new edition of the Standards of the Church, informing the Assembly that he was ready to make the stereotype plates of the Constitution, published by him, by authority of the Assembly of 1846, conform to any alterations the Assembly may direct; and to submit the Book, before publication, to the inspection of the Stated Clerk, or any Committee they may appoint.

Whereupon it was Resolved, that the Stated and Permanent Clerks be a Committee to publish a new and correct edition of the Standards of the Church, and that they be directed to employ Mr. Perkins as the printer of the Book.

Rev. E. Mason, D. D., from the Committee to whom was referred the subject of Correspondence with the other General Assembly, made a report, which, after being amended, was unanimously adopted, and is as follows:

"The Committee, to whom was referred the subject of the Letter from the Presbytery of Rochester, report,

"That this Assembly has always deplored, and continues to deplore, the unhappy division in the Presbyterian Church, as well as the causes which produced it. For this sundering of the body of Christ they do not feel themselves at all responsible, as, in everything they have done, they have stood upon the defensive to protect their dearest rights, secured to them under the Constitution of the Church.

"They have always, moreover, been ready to meet their brethren in any plan consistent with principle, to heal the breach, and restore the Church to its former integrity; and have even taken the first step towards such a result.

"Feeling that a separation between brethren of a common faith, common sympathies, and a common creed, could not be without sin, they did, immediately after the separation in 1838, (see Minutes, p. 634,) publish to the world their willingness to 'agree to any reasonable measures tending to an amicable adjustment of the difficulties existing in the Presbyterian Church.'

"In 1839, to avert all unpleasant controversy, and prevent all unhappy litigation, they proposed a plan of amicable settlement, designed only to secure our constitutional privileges as Presbyterians, while it relinquished to our brethren of the other body all the chartered rights, institutions, and funds of the Presbyterian Church. (See Minutes of 1839, p. 21.)

"The idea of an amicable settlement, and even of re-union, was cherished for some time by this body; and it was not until 1841, three years after the separation, that they relinquished it; and coming reluctantly to the conclusion that union was impracticable, they corrected their roll, and dropped from it the names of these brethren, in deference to their feelings. (See Minutes of 1841, p. 41.)

"Again, in 1846, they expressed the desire for union with their brethren; and, pained by the unseemly exhibition of two such bodies at apparent strife with each other, they proposed to their brethren of the other Assembly, a mutual recognition of each other, by communing together at the Table of our Master.

"These propositions and overtures were all made in good faith, and with an earnest desire and hope that they might be met in the spirit which prompted them.

"The result is a matter of history, and is now before the world. We do not pretend to question the motives of our brethren in rejecting them; we yield to them what we claim for ourselves, honesty of purpose, and sincere convictions of duty. We stated only the facts, and do so, to show that we cannot, as a body, at the present time, take any farther action in this matter.

"While we are constrained to come to this conclusion, we should be untrue to ourselves before God and the world, did we not frankly avow our readiness to meet, in a spirit of fraternal kindness and Christian love, any overtures which may be made to us by the other body."

Rev. S. T. Spear was added to the Committee on Leave of Absence.

The discussion continued until nearly 10 o'clock, when the Assembly adjourned, to meet in the church to-morrow, at 8½ o'clock, A. M.

Concluded with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 28th, 8½ o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

After the usual time occupied in devotional exercises, the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Report of the Committee in reference to Correspondence with the Methodist Episcopal Conferences, which had been put upon the docket, was taken up, and the following Resolution was adopted, viz.:

"Whereas, the communication of the Oneida Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church solicits only a correspondence between themselves and the Synod of New-York and New-Jersey, and not with the Presbyterian Church generally; and whereas the Synod has referred the matmer to the Assembly, without submitting any specific proposition or plan for such correspondence, Therefore,

"Resolved, that the communication be referred back to the Synod to adopt such measures as they may deem proper in pursuance of the request for a Correspondence of the local bodies."

In reference to Collections for the Commissioners' Fund, the Assembly re-affirmed the following Resolution of the Assembly of 1843, contained in the Minutes of 1849, p. 214:—"That every Presbytery be, and hereby is earnestly requested to cause a contribution for the Commissioners' Fund to be taken up in all their churches, in the winter preceding each future General Assembly, and transmit the whole amount of the same to the Assembly, by their own or some neighboring commissioner."

The unfinished business of yesterday, viz., the discussion of the subject of Slavery, was resumed;—the question being still on the adoption of the Report of the Minority.

Resolved, that all debate on this subject cease at 12 o'clock, M.

Rev. D. Malin moved the postponement of the motion before the house, to take up the following substitute:

"Whereas, numerous Memorials on the subject of Slavery have been regularly laid before this Assembly, and carefully examined by a Committee to whom they were referred;—which memorials unite in proposing no specific measure, but, in general, asking of this Assembly more decisive and stringent action;

And whereas, in answer to Memorials of the same character on this subject, several successive General Assemblies have expressed their sentiments, and borne their decided testimony;

Therefore, Resolved,

That in the judgment of this Assembly, no evidence is before them, that new exigencies or circumstances have arisen requiring at this time further action by this body."

The following substitute, suggested by Rev. E. Mason, D. D., was adopted by Mr. Malin, as his own:

"Whereas, according to the 'Form of Government,' the powers of the General Assembly, except in judicial cases, are only 'ministerial and declarative'; and whereas, in former years, especially in the year 1849, the Assembly did fully and decidedly express its opinions respecting the subject of Slavery; and whereas, by the Constitution of the Church, Sessions and Presbyteries are the courts of primary jurisdiction, competent to judge of offences and their proof;—this Assembly cannot take any farther action in this matter, except as it may be brought up in a regular manner by way of judicial process, or general review and control from the lower judicatories."

At 12 o'clock, the question was taken, and the postponement was lost:

The question recurred on the adoption of the Minority Report, which, after being amended was adopted, by Yeas and Nays, and is as follows:

"A minority of the Committee, to whom was referred a number of Memorials on the subject of Slavery from various Synods, Presbyteries and Churches within our bounds, beg leave to report:—.

"That after a careful and thorough examination of the whole subject, they have been brought to the conclusion, that, in consideration of the previous action of the Assembly, had at different times for a series of years, and what they believe to be its present sentiments, and the expectation of the churches in its connection, the cause of truth and righteousness, of peace and unity, will be best subserved by the adoption of the following resolutions:—

Resolved, 1. That we exceedingly deplore the working of the whole system of Slavery as it exists in our country, and is interwoven with the political institutions of the slaveholding States, as fraught with many and great evils to the civil, political and moral interests of those regions where it exists.

Resolved, 2. That the holding our fellow-men in the condition of slavery, except in those cases where it is unavoidable, by the laws of the State, the obligations of guardianship, or the demands of humanity, is an offence in the proper import of that term, as used in the Book of Discipline, Chap. i. Sec. 3, and should be regarded and treated in the same manner as other offences.

Resolved, 3. That the Sessions and Presbyteries are, by the Constitution of our Church, the courts of primary jurisdiction for the trial of offences.

Resolved, 4. That after this declaration of sentiment, the whole subject of Slavery, as it exists in the Church, be referred to the Sessions and Presbyteries, to take such action thereon as in their judgment the laws of Christianity require."

The following members voted in the Affirmative:

Messrs. Dobie, Leonard, White, Hitchcock, Bassett, Tyler, Payson, Bacon, Lathrop, Nelson, Gelston, Fancher, Tuttle, Benedict, B. C. Smith, Mills, Monson, Hollister, Jesse Smith, Somers, Sunderland, Wisner, Heacock, Bryant, Wood, Sayre, Wiswell, Stiles, Mason, Spear, Arms, J. F. Tuttle, Willis, G. W. Messrs. J. H. Noble, J. H. Clark, Townsend, Gray, Barks, Boyd, Shepherd, C. H. Read, Phillips, Craig, McCorkle, Blackburn, Mills, Cleland, Dysart, Zivley,—16.

Against this action of the Assembly, the Rev. Charles H. Read, for himself and others, offered the following Protest, which he wished to have entered in the Minutes; and his request was granted:

"The undersigned members of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, now in session in Detroit, believing conscientiously that the interests of Church and State of the entire population of the North, and South, and East, and West, will, under existing circumstances, not only not be promoted by the present action of the Assembly on the subject of Slavery, but will the rather be injured thereby,— do hereby solemnly and respectfully PROTEST against that action in our own name and in behalf of the Presbyteries we are here to represent. This Protest we ask to have entered upon the Minutes of this General Assembly."

Signed,—Charles H. Read, Andrew Blackburn, A. H. H. Boyd, J. H. Zivley, B. Mills, George M. Phillips, J. B. Townsend, F. R. Gray."

TUESDAY, May 28th, 3 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on Mileage reported that a small balance remained uncalled for in their hands. Ordered, that it be paid over to the Contingent Fund.

The rule in reference to the Printed Minutes, adopted by the Assembly of 1849, (Minutes, p. 172,) was adopted in reference to the Minutes of this Assembly.

Rev. Charles H. Read, from the Committee on the Narrative, made a report, which was adopted, and ordered to be published in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Resolved, that the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the N. Y. & Erie Railroad Company; to the Hudson River Railroad and Steamboat Company; and to the several Railroad Companies between Albany and Buffalo; to the Proprietors of the Michigan Central Railroad and Lake Michigan Line of Steamers; to General Charles M. Read, of Erie; to the Detroit & Sandusky, the Monroe & Toledo Lines, and all others who have accommodated the members of this body in their passage to and from the city of Detroit, by a generous reduction of fares upon their several excellent and well arranged lines of conveyance.

Also, that thanks be tendered to the several proprietors of Hotels in Detroit, for the courtesy and liberality shown by them to many of the Commissioners; also, to the Trustees of the First Presbyterian Church in Detroit, for the use of their edifice, and various facilities for the business of the Assembly.

Also, to the many families in the city of Detroit whose unsurpassed hospitality has been shown to the members of the Assembly during a protracted session.

Resolved especially, that the General Assembly entertain a grateful sense of the very generous and entirely unexpected transmission to the members, by the Superintendent of the Michigan Central Railroad Co., J. W. Brooks, Esq., of free tickets for a pleasure excursion after their sessions, to any place on the line of their Railroad across the Peninsula, and on the line of their steamboats on Lake Michigan, from this city to Milwaukie and back; which generous expression of respect and courtesy to this body has contributed to enhance the pleasure of their visit and session in this city.

Resolved, that the Permanent Clerk be directed to convey copies of the above resolutions to the persons for whom they are intended, and also to have them published in the papers of this city and elsewhere.

Ordered, that the salaries of the Stated and Permanent Clerks be paid.

The bill for the printing of the roll and papers, amounting to $15, was ordered to be paid.

Also, the traveling expenses of Rev. G. N. Judd, D. D., as Delegate to Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Resolved, that the thanks of the Assembly be hereby expressed to the MODERATOR, for the patience, fidelity, and uninterrupted suavity, and gentleness of spirit and manner, as well as for his strict attention to the business before the body, with which he has discharged the duties of his office, through its protracted and onerous sessions.

Thanks, also, were tendered to the Temporary Clerk, for his uniform courtesy, and diligent faithfulness in the discharge of the duties devolving on him in his department.

On motion of J. H. Clark, M. D., Resolved unanimously, that the General Assembly regard the cause of Temperance with no less favor than in the days of its highest popularity, and would deprecate a return to the drinking usages of a former period, as one of the greatest evils to the Church and the world.

Resolved, that the cause of religion, of benevolence and of humanity, requires all who love our Lord Jesus Christ, to continue faithful to the cause of Temperance, holding themselves ready, at all times, when expedient, to present it from the pulpit, and by every suitable means to promote its interests.

The minutes were read and approved.

The roll was called, and the following members were recorded, and ordered to be reported to their respective Presbyteries, as absent without leave: Rev. Robert P. Stanton and Elder John R. APPENDIX.

ANNUAL NARRATIVE

OF THE

STATE OF RELIGION

Within the Bounds of the Presbyterian Church

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

MAY, 1850.

THE history of the dealings of God with our Zion during the past year, and the statement of the present spiritual condition and prospects of the churches in our ecclesiastical fellowship, which the many friends of Christ and religion expect at our hands, must necessarily be gathered from the more or less complete narratives sent up from the several Presbyteries in our connection. Whatever we might have occasion to rejoice in, or to deplore,—as viewed from the several stand-points of observation occupied by us individually,—we are expected in this paper to speak as those who have walked about the walls, through the streets and in the tabernacles of our beloved Zion, noticing candidly the strength and the weakness, the progress and decline, the things that are sorrowful or hopeful, and to make a true report.

From one hundred and two Presbyteries on the roll of this Assembly we have received sixty-eight narratives. Some of these are quite too vague and general to answer the design of the Assembly, or to be of any use to the Committee to whom they have been referred. Others have evidently been prepared with conscientious consideration and care, furnishing precisely the staple facts and indications with which the whole Church should be made acquainted.

From a careful examination of the materials found in these narratives, and after listening to the statements made on the floor of the Assembly, the following items are deemed worthy of public notice:—

1. The Evidences of External Prosperity.

We take pleasure in recording the fact, that while the ground formerly occupied under religious culture has, in the main, been well maintained,—new and extended efforts have been made over territory not before possessed by us. Not a few of our old churches have been greatly strengthened;—new and commodious edifices have taken the place of those that were dilapitated; a large amount of debt, for which the property of the churches was held as security, and the interest of which was burdensome, has been by generous private subscriptions liquidated; a considerable number of new church-edifices, upon new ground, have been erected, and new preaching stations occupied by missionary enterprise.

It deserves also to be noticed, in counterpart of this general statement, that owing to changes of population, diversions of trade to new centres, and sometimes for want of a due regard to the importance of a settled ministry and suitable support of pastors—here and there a church has been dissolved and an enterprise abandoned.

2. The Spiritual Condition of the Churches.

Under this general head the narratives and statements of the Brethren lead us to notice,

1st. The feelings cherished among the people in populous districts respecting the regular services of the Sanctuary, and a well-educated and settled ministry,—in contrast with impulsive irregular efforts, and temporary supplies.

Whatever the necessities of some sparsely settled portions of our country may dictate—it would seem to be the growing conviction of ministers and people—that steadfast and persevering labor upon fields well fenced in by the divinely accredited ordinances and means of grace,—where the pastor and people take deep root and grow together in sanctified affections and sympathies, and have an eye to permanent results,—are best calculated to promote the elevation of society, the salvation of souls and the glory of God. We hail it as an omen of future good, as it is a sign of present peace and healthful sentiment, that there is a growing attachment between settled pastors and their people; a looking to God for dews and showers of his grace upon well-cultivated fields; and less dependence upon "a floating, unattached, irresponsible ministry."

It is greatly to be desired that this sentiment may prevail, and be extended over some portions of our Zion where its importance does not seem to be appreciated.

2d. The reports indicate an earnest sensibility on the part of many of the Presbyteries respecting

The Sanctification of the Sabbath.

That this holy day of God is one of the chief pillars of safety to the Church, the State and the best interests of humanity, is most clearly established by the word and providence of God, and by the history of our race. That true spiritual religion cannot flourish when this holy day is disregarded, or loosely observed,—is plain without argument; and yet it is a lamentable fact that some of the operations of our National Government, the employment of a very large amount of publicly-chartered and private capital, and the business and social usages of individuals, put dishonor on this divine institution. While, therefore, we have occasion to mourn and humble ourselves before God that these things are so, we rejoice that the Presbyteries are awake to the serious importance of this subject, and that it is noticed in so many of the reports with a holy sorrow, which, it is hoped, will lead to the promotion of a purer public and private sentiment in every portion of the Church, and throughout our beloved country.

It appears that the recent opening of new and great thoroughfares of travel and transportation of merchandise, and the migration of masses of people, have had the effect to disturb the former quietness of not a few places in our country, on the Sabbath day; hence, in addition to the previous greater or less profanation or indifference, there is now in many places much noise and confusion; crowds of idle and curious persons are gathered at Railroad Depots, at Steamboat Wharfs, and about the Hotel and Canal Stations; encouragement is too frequently given to the vulgar and ignorant by the frequent mingling in such scenes of those who hold respectable and influential positions in society, and thus the Sabbath of God is desecrated, public worship disturbed, and the hearts of the pious deeply grieved. In view of this state of things, it becomes the people of God to be firmly conscientious, and to write "Holiness unto the Lord" on this day by precept and example.

3d. Again—under this general head we are called upon to notice in contrast and in conflict with the strong tide of worldliness and covetousness which rises around and invades the church.

The prominence which this particular occupies in many of the Presbyterial Reports would seem to demand more than a passing notice. There is evidently a great and special necessity now, and among us, for deep seated and enlightened religious principle on the part of all Christians. All light and loose materials in society are caught up and borne along by the increased activity of all the wordly elements.

Religious principles and affections are now put to a severe test by the increased temptations and resistance which they have to contend with and overcome. Nothing but a vital union with Christ and the inhabitation of the Holy Spirit will avail the professor of religion at such a time as this. There is an evident necessity that the voice of kind and faithful warning should not only be heard from the pulpit, addressed to the assembled congregation, but also that there should be much direct personal exhortation and application of truth, with meekness and love.

The spirit of wordliness is the more insidious and dangerous, for that it cannot be so distinctly defined as may some cardinal error in doctrine, or some overt sins: it is an enbosoming atmosphere rather than a distinct form, or opinion; we live in it and breathe it continually, and unless there be a positive and powerful pre-occupation of the mind and heart of the Christian by the knowledge, love and fear of God, he will wither under this moral pestilence.

Here again we have reason for encouragement in the fact that this is a felt evil, a realized danger on the part of the brethren who have united their testimony in the reports sent up; and as it is one of God's modes of dealing with his people—to make them see and feel their own danger, and the danger of others, in order that they may be put on their guard, feel their dependence, and look to Him for help,—we would indulge the hope, that what is spread out in the reports upon this subject is but the reflection and echo of His light and voice, shining and speaking in and through the hearts of the brethren. The mere faint hope of salvation from a faintly realized risk of perdition to the soul, is not enough wherewithal to stem the tide of worldliness, and overcome the lusts of the flesh, of the eye, and the pride of life: there must be more than this; yea, there must be the principle and the power of holiness, an enthroning of God-in-Christ in the heart, and a captivity of the soul to the obedience of FAITH.

4th. FAMILY RELIGION AND FAITHFUL INSTRUCTION OF YOUTH AND CHILDREN.

The importance of the latter of these duties is frequently adverted to, as a matter of growing estimation, in many of the narratives; and the necessity of the former is plainly indicated. It is an occasion of hopeful rejoicing, that, in connection with a faithful instruction of our youth and children in the Holy Scriptures, in the family, the Bible Class, and the Sabbath School; the Assembly's Catechism is being restored and is growing in favor among our people. This is an omen full of good. It is to be hoped that while Bible Classes and Sabbath Schools may be steadily and cordially sustained, they will in no case be regarded by Christian parents as a substitute for home instruction. No parent can excuse himself from the holy duty and privilege of carefully teaching his own children by reason of the kindest and most faithful offices of any one out of his own house. The FAMILY is one of God's most merciful and blessed institutions in this world. Intelligent piety finds here its strongest asylum, and here its sanctifying and elevating influences should be most sedulously cherished. The Hebrew Commonwealth had its prominent elements of beauty and of strength in the family tie and family religion. Let there be cultivated an intelligent, meditative piety in the bosom of each Christian family, and we may not doubt that peace, purity and stability will be the characteristics of our churches, and a legacy for which other generations will bless us.

5th. BENEVOLENCE IN SUPPORT OF RELIGIOUS INSTITUTIONS.

In this respect, while the general standard is very low and we have reason for humility rather than boasting, or even self gratulation, there is ground of encouragement.

In some of our churches the benevolent action in the way of strengthening our position and extending the Gospel through the agency of the Bible, Tract, Home and Foreign Missionary Societies has been systematized; pains have been taken to educate the mind and heart and the policy of life in harmony with the grand design of these and kindred enterprises; and it has been found that the promises of God to those who devise liberal things is faithful.

We are called upon to acknowledge with devout gratitude many delightful refreshings from the special presence of the Holy Spirit among the churches. Reports of the revival of the tone of piety among Christians, and the conversion of the impenitent, come to us from almost all sections of our beloved Zion.

These blessings have come down, in most cases, very silently, upon churches enjoying the stated administrations of the Gospel, without much stir or observation; and yet the result has been the very manifest advancement of the kingdom of Christ—in the edification of his people and the salvation of sinners. And, lest we should forget our complete and encouraging dependence on the sovereign grace of God, it deserves attention—that, in some cases, blessed seasons of refreshing and extension to the church have been enjoyed by some of the churches, which were at the time destitute of a pastor. We can but hope—as we would most fervently pray—that a period of merciful visitation has begun to dawn upon us, and that this fiftieth year is to be indeed a jubilee to our land and the world.

7th. Successful Preaching of the Gospel among the Colored Population in the South.

The following brief extract from the narrative of the Presbytery of South Lexington is introduced as a specimen of the reports from our Southern churches: "The servants are cared for, and in some of our parishes the Gospel is preached to them as regularly as to the whites. They appreciate the glad tidings in some degree and many give pleasing proof of being new creatures in Jesus Christ."

In summing up the results of the ecclesiastical year, we have reason for profound humiliation and for devout gratitude to the Great Head of the Church. It has, upon the whole, been a year of progress, and, in some respects, we trust, of consolidation and increased activity under the blessing of God.

The frightful pestilence which was casting its dark pall over our country about the time of the dissolution of the Assembly of 1849, and which soon girded our nation and penetrated many sections, leaving its path distinct with sepulchres, desolating many hearth stones, and cutting down not a few of the watchmen upon the walls of Zion, was not permitted to any considerable extent to invade our ministerial ranks or our congregations. May we all be enabled henceforth to say: "The life which thou hast made thy care, Lord, I devote to thee." It becomes our mournful duty, however, to record the fact that the following Ministers of our Church have departed this life during the past year.

The statements made upon the floor of the Assembly by delegates, and the written reports from Corresponding Bodies, to wit, The General Associations of Connecticut and New Hampshire, the General Conference of Maine, and the Presbyterian and Congregational General Convention of Wisconsin, afford gratifying evidence of general peace, purity and progress in these several branches of the Church and members of the body of Christ.

CORRESPONDENCE.

I. With the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The undersigned, having been appointed by the General Assembly of 1849 a Committee to inform the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of the action of our body in relation to a correspondence, would respectfully report:

That soon after the rising of the last Assembly he addressed a letter to Rev. Milton Bird, D. D., the Chairman of a Committee on Correspondence in the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in which he announced to him what was the action taken by our Assembly last year, and requested from him some account of what had been done in his Assembly.

He replied, that the same resolution which was adopted by our Assembly last year, had been adopted also in 1847 by the Cumberland Presbyterian Assembly, in the same words—that they had deemed it unnecessary to take any further action until advised of the action of ours—that as ours had had no regular meeting until 1849, and the two Assemblies being in session at the same time, intelligence of the proceedings of each was unknown to the other, and consequently no delegate was appointed to our Assembly. He says: "Our next Assembly will no doubt appoint a delegate to yours, who will, if possible, attend your next Assembly, and if this be impracticable, as the two Assemblies meet about the same time, he can correspond with your Assembly. Our Assembly will meet in Clarksville, Tennessee, on the third Tuesday in May, 1850. A delegate from your Assembly would receive a cordial welcome in ours. I see nothing in the way of an immediate correspondence between us, and I hope your delegate will attend our Assembly. The terms of the correspondence have been adopted on our part; it only remains for our Assembly to appoint a delegate to yours, which it will doubtless do."

It is probable that Rev. Edward McMillan is now in attendance on the General Assembly in Session at Clarksville, and your Committee would recommend that a delegate be appointed by your body to the Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly for 1851 in the usual manner.

Yours, very respectfully,

CONWAY P. WING.

Montgomery, Orange Co., N. Y., May, 1850.

The undersigned, one of the delegates appointed by the last General Assembly to attend the annual meetings of the General Associations of Connecticut and Massachusetts, respectfully reports, that he, in connection with his respected colleague, the Rev. Doctor Ballard, attended the meetings of those bodies.

At the meeting of the General Association of Connecticut, he was present from the commencement to the close of its sessions. The reception of your delegates by this body, furnished delightful evidence of a kind, fraternal feeling toward our branch of the Church of God universal, and of a deep interest in the success of the various organizations for the universal diffusion of the blessings of the Gospel of Christ. While your delegate was gratified with the zeal of some members of the Association for the maintenance of sound doctrine throughout their bounds, he was pained at the efforts made by others to connive at errors which had been published a short time previous by a member of one of their local Associations. The errors referred to, your delegate regards as subversive of the system of doctrine contained in the word of God and the only foundation of our hopes for eternity.

The circumstances of your delegate allowed him to be present but one day during the sessions of the General Association of Massachusetts. That was a day of delightful interest. Great harmony prevailed and a feeling of great cordiality was manifested toward our branch of the great Protestant family. Your delegate returned from his mission cheered by the hope that the day is drawing near when differences in opinion, in regard to ecclesiastical polity, will be no bar to fraternal intercourse among those who are agreed in the belief of that system of doctrine and duty, which constitutes the peculiar glory of the Gospel.

All which is respectfully submitted,

G. N. JUDD.

III. With the General Association of New-York.

Auburn, May 13th, 1850.

To the General Assembly of the Pres. Chh. to be convened at Detroit, May 16th, 1850.

By appointment of the last General Assembly I attended the meeting of the General Association of New-York at Pulaski, Oswego Co., in August, 1849. I was cordially received as Commissioner by a large majority of the Association, and treated very courteously, personally, by all. A delegate to attend your session was also appointed by the Association.

There are some things relative to this mutual correspondence, now first established and which had been previously proposed by the Association, that seems due to the General Assembly to be more fully reported. In the discussions elicited by the direct consideration of the subject, and subsequently in connection with an item of business, there were two topics introduced, which were manifestly deemed to be of sufficient importance in the estimation of some quite influential members, why they should hesitate about coming to a more intimate co-operation with the Presbyterian church, viz., slavery and denominational peculiarities.

In reference to the former, less was said, and I suppose that all were satisfied by the adoption of a resolution, which their delegate was instructed to lay before the General Assembly.

But in reference to the latter topic some were more sensitive, and their exhibition of feeling was similar to that which in many parts of the land is making this topic matter of absorbing consideration. The ground taken by your commissioner was, in brief, as follows:—

That extreme views of Presbyterianism and Congregationalism brought in a difference of principle; on one side, that a church session is essential as a divine ordinance, and that the bench of elders rule the church jure divino; on the other, that it is essential that the congregation of the brotherhood should act entire and govern themselves as a church by a majority vote. These extremes cannot coalesce, inasmuch as they are separated by principle, though they may hold fraternal Christian correspondence. But that, aside from these extreme views, the great portion of constitutional Presbyterians and Orthodox Congregationalists hold one grand principle in common, viz.: the rights of every particular church, under Christ, to regulate for itself its own organization and disciplinary action.

That the principle of delegation was recognised in the New Testament, and this might be used by one and disused by the other, without any derogation from their common principle of church power and freedom; and that if one delegated its powers to a session, and combined pastors and sessions were represented in Presbyteries, and if the other conducted all things by majorities in full vote and had advisory counsels, consociations and associations; still there was in this no reason why "Ephraim should envy Judah or that Judah should vex Ephraim," for they both stood as sister churches on the one basis of particular church power and liberty. While one freely delegated its powers the other as freely abstained from delegation, and they should reciprocally give and take this liberty.

The discussion and final vote manifested that probably as many as three to one were substantially agreed in the above views and desirous of a cordial co-operation with us.

In all other respects, the session was marked by harmony and courtesy; the churches were represented as growing in spirituality and more confirmed order and orthodoxy. I cannot doubt the desirableness of continued fraternal correspondence, with confidence and elevated liberality.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

DELINQUENT CHURCH MEMBERS.

Extract from the Minutes of the General Assembly of 1825, Vol. V. 255, 6:

"The committee appointed on the Overture from the Synod of New-Jersey, inquiring what a Church Session ought to do with members in communion, who have been absent for years without having taken a certificate of dismission, and whose place of residence is unknown, made a report which, being read and amended, was adopted, and is as follows, viz:

That although this particular case is not provided for by a specific regulation in our Book of Discipline, yet it is embraced by certain general principles, which are recognised in that book, and interwoven with many of its provisions. These principles, together with the result, bearing on the case in question, the committee beg leave most respectively to state.

1. Every church member is amenable to some appropriate tribunal, by the wisdom and fidelity of which, in case of his falling into any error, immorality, or negligence, he may be dealt with according to the word of God.

2. No member of a church can properly ever cease to be such but by death, exclusion, a regular dismission, or an orderly withdrawing to join some other Christian denomination; and must of necessity continue to be amenable to that church until he becomes regularly connected with another.

3. For a church member to withdraw from a use of his privileges as a member, either by irregularly connecting himself with another denomination, or by going to a distant part of the world, to reside for a number of years without making known his removal to the church session, and asking a certificate either of good standing, for the purpose of enjoying occasional communion elsewhere; or of dismission, to join some other church; is itself a censurable violation of the principles of church fellowship, and may infer suspension from its privileges.

4. Church members, therefore who have been absent for a number of years in unknown places, are by no means to have their names erased from the churches to which they respectively belong; but are to be held responsible to their respective churches; and, if they should ever return, or be heard from, are to be regularly dealt with according to the word of God, and the principles of our church; and, although great caution and tenderness ought to be exercised toward those, whose withdrawing from Christian privileges may be occasioned by the unavoidable dispensations of Providence, without any material fault of their own, yet in all cases in which a church session has good reason to believe, that any of the church under their care have absented themselves with design, either from a disregard of Christian privilege, or from a wish to escape from the inspection and discipline of the church, they ought without unnecessary delay to declare such persons suspended from the privileges of the church, until they give evidence of repentance and reformation; and of course, in making their statistical reports, ought to enumerate such among the members under suspension."

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH-DAY.

From the Minutes of the Assembly of 1843.

"1. Resolved, That as the Sabbath was made for man, and the observance of it is essential to the highest social, civil and religious interests of man, it is not only the duty, but the right and the privilege of all men to remember it and to keep it holy.

2. Resolved, That the loading and unloading of vessels, the sailing of vessels from the harbor, the running of stage-coaches, rail-cars, and canal-boats, and the traveling in them; the visiting of post-offices, reading-rooms, and other places for secular reading, business or amusement, are not only unnecessary, but are violations of the law of God, and ought to be abandoned throughout the community.

3. Resolved, That it is the duty of Christians when traveling, to stop on the Sabbath, and during the whole of the Sabbath.

4. Resolved, That all Pastors be requested fully to instruct their people as to the duty and utility of observing the Sabbath; and to be especially careful always to add to their instruction the influence of a uniformly consistent example.

5. Resolved, that it be recommended to all families to supply themselves with some good Sabbath Manual, that the rising generation may all be taught the reasons for the universal and perpetual observance of the Sabbath; and teachers of Sabbath-schools also are requested to exhibit this subject with frequency and plainness to their pupils.

6. Resolved, That all persons who are acquainted with facts which illustrate the duty and utility of keeping the Sabbath, and the evils of violating it, are requested to cause them to be published and circulated as extensively as possible; that the voice of God in his providence as well as in his word with regard to this subject, may be heard by all the people.

7. Resolved, That such is the fundamental importance of the Sabbath to all the great interests of men; and such its influence upon all efforts for the intellectual elevation, the moral purity, the social happiness, and the eternal good of men, that its due observance ought to receive the earnest attention, the fervent prayers, and the hearty, active and persevering co-operation of all friends of God and man throughout the world."

PRAYER FOR THE ASSEMBLY.

Extract from the Minutes of the General Assembly, in Session at Philadelphia, May 19th, 1821:

"An overture from the Synod of North Carolina was received and read, and is as follows:

"Whereas the General Assembly is the highest and most important judicatory of the Presbyterian Church; and whereas, to obtain the Divine blessing on that judicatory must appear, to every Christian of our denomination, to be a matter of the utmost moment; therefore,

"Resolved, That this Synod do respectfully suggest to the General Assembly the propriety of recommending, to all the churches under their care, to observe the afternoon or evening previous to the meeting of that body, AS A SEASON OF SPECIAL PRAYER to Almighty God for his blessing; that he would, of his infinite mercy, condescend to superintend and direct all their measures, deliberations and decisions; so that all may redound to the promotion of his own glory and the general prosperity of that particular Church to which we belong.

"After some discussion, the above overture was adopted."

COMMISSIONERS' FUND.

Extract from the Minutes of the General Assembly, in session at Philadelphia, May 23d, 1843.

"The Committee on the Commissioners' Fund made the following report, which was adopted:

"Resolved, 1. That the regulations of the Assembly, passed in 1838, be and the same are hereby repealed.

"2. That hereafter any Presbytery, which had formerly obtained leave to pay the expenses of their own Commissioners to the Assembly, shall have liberty to pursue the same course if they shall desire it.

"3. Nevertheless, the Assembly would earnestly desire and recommend, that all the churches and Presbyteries, under care of this Assembly, should make common cause in raising an adequate fund to defray the necessary expenses of all Commissioners whose circumstances may constrain them to apply for the same. This course of conduct the Assembly deem most equitable, fraternal and christian; for thus the strong will help to bear the infirmities of the weak, and all parts of the Church be best tempered together and edified.

"4. That every Presbytery be and hereby is earnestly requested to cause a contribution for the Commissioners' Fund to be taken up in all their churches, in the winter preceding each future General Assembly, and transmit the whole amount of the same to the Assembly, by their own or some neighboring Commissioner.

"5. That such Commissioners to this or any future General Assembly, whose Presbytery has not preferred to defray his expenses by the application of their own funds, and who has returned his mileage, or at any time within four days from and after the opening of any future Assembly, returns to the Mileage Committee the number of miles which he has necessarily traveled from home in going to the Assembly, shall be entitled to receive his share of the Commissioners' Fund, provided the Presbytery from which he comes shall have made any reasonable contribution to the said fund out of which his mileage is to be drawn; of which the Mileage Committee, subject to an appeal to the Assembly, shall be competent to judge.

"6. That all funds sent up to the Assembly for this purpose, shall be, at every General Assembly, committed to the Mileage Committee, to be divided between the lawful applicants for the same, in proportion to the number of miles which they have necessarily traveled.

"7. That, should the Commissioners Fund in any one year be sufficient to allow each applicant Commissioner for allowance of mileage more than five cents for each mile traveled in coming to the Assembly, then the surplus at each Assembly, after paying 5 cents a mile to the applicants, shall be reserved and paid to the Treasurer for the time being, for the purpose of being divided at the next Assembly, if needful."

CONTINGENT FUND.

The attention of the Presbyteries is particularly directed to the resolutions relative to the PRINTING OF THE MINUTES, on p. 326. It is expected that every Presbytery will call upon the churches under their care, for a contribution to this fund, out of which all the incidental expenses of the Assembly, as well as the expense for printing the Minutes and Statistical Reports, are to be paid. It is hoped that the Presbyteries will, therefore, forward not less than the sum mentioned in the aforesaid rule, and as much more as they can spare.

PRESBYTERIES.

It is very desirable that the Presbyteries should, all of them, take special order in relation to the Statistical Reports of Church-sessions; that full and accurate reports be furnished to their Stated Clerks, in season for the Presbyterial Report to the General Assembly. It was enjoined, by the General Assembly of 1818, on every Presbytery, to inquire of their Commissioners to the Assembly, at their first meeting after the rising of the Assembly, whether the statistical report of that Presbytery was laid before the Assembly.

STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS.

It is made the duty of the Stated Clerks of the respective Synods, to take special care in forwarding to the General Assembly, by the hands of one of the Commissioners, their Book of Records, for "the inspection of the General Assembly," and to report to the Assembly the number of Presbyteries, ministers, churches, licentiates and candidates within the bounds of their Synod, and particularly all changes which may have been made in the number or arrangement of their Presbyteries since the last report, authenticated by the signature of the Stated Clerk.

STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.

The attention of the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries is respectfully requested to the following matters pertaining to the General Assembly. They are requested to take particular care,

1. That the Commissioners to the Assembly be furnished with a commission, according to the form prescribed in the Form of Government, Chap. XXII., Sec. II.

2. That collections be taken, if possible, in all the churches of the Presbytery, for the Commissioners' Fund, and also for the Contingent Fund, and that the amount be forwarded by the hands of one of the Commissioners.

3. That a Narrative of the State of Religion be prepared at the stated meeting of the Presbytery immediately preceding the meeting of the General Assembly, and forwarded in like manner, properly authenticated. The Narrative should specify also the decease of every minister who has been removed by death since the last report.

4. To prepare a full and accurate Report of the Statistics of their Presbytery, distinctly written, not on the same paper with the Narrative, but separately, for the convenience of the Assembly in referring them to distinct committees. In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following rules be observed:—

(1.) Carefully copy the blank form of columns, &c., on the opposite page. ☞

(2.) Record ministers in the order of their ministerial age, with their Christian names.

(3.) Place the name of every church opposite the name of its pastor or stated supply.

(4.) Place after the name of every minister an abbreviation denoting his occupation; e. g., P. for Pastor; S. S., for Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for a President of a College; Prof., for a Professor in a College or Theological Seminary; Sec., for a Secretary of a benevolent institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; P. C., for a Pastor of a Congregational Church; and W. C., for a minister without charge.

(5.) Place, after the name of every church, the abbreviations, P., for one that has a Pastor: S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; or V., for one that is vacant.

(6.) If a church fails to report, let the number of communicants be given as reported to Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) denoting the fact.

(7.) In the additions to the church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; and in the Baptisms, between the Adults and the Infants.

(8.) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded in the last column; but of the Candidates, the number only is to be given.

(9.) Avoid erasures or interlineations; and make names and numbers distinctly legible.

(10.) Add up every column, and authenticate the Report with your signature.

(11.) Affix no extraneous matter; such as memoranda, explanations, &c.

(12.) Let all orders for the delivery of Minutes be on a separate paper, or they may not be observed or the Minutes sent.

5. That the Statistical Report be forwarded by the hands of one of the Commissioners of the Assembly; or, if this be neglected, that it be sent, as soon as possible, by mail, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

☞ See order of Assembly, on page 326.

THE CHURCH PSALMIST.

The General Assembly's Book of Psalms and Hymns,

Is printed and published in three sizes, and bound in every variety of style.

The Duodecimo, in large type, suitable for the Pulpit and the aged, and having an Index of first lines of Stanzas in addition to the Index of first lines of Psalms and Hymns, is furnished by the quantity in substantial sheep-binding, for . . . . . 67 cts.

The Middle size, in sheep-binding, ... 44 cts.

The Small or Pocket size, in sheep, ... 37½ cts.

The publishers have stereotyped the Confession of Faith, corrected as authorized by the last General Assembly, so that Churches or individuals, who desire it, can now be supplied with the Church Psalmist and Confession of Faith, together with the shorter Catechism, bound in the same volume, at an additional expense of six cents per copy.

We shall also publish, at a very low price, for general circulation in Churches, families, and Sabbath Schools, the Shorter Catechism of the Westminster Assembly of Divines, by itself: also,

The Confession of Faith and Shorter Catechism in one book; to these we invite the attention of Ministers and Superintendents of Sabbath Schools.

THE SOCIAL PSALMIST,

Containing the Hymns of the "Church Psalmist," bound separately. This book, in matter and arrangement of subjects, is peculiarly adapted to social and private worship. To render the "Social Psalmist" more extensively useful, the publishers have added an Appendix, containing a great variety of the most standard Tunes in all the different metres. In the selection of this Music we have adopted those arrangements of the Tunes which are believed to be most in use in the Churches. We have also availed ourselves of the experience and talents of one of the best musicians and composers of the country, and we feel confident that this book, in its present shape, will meet the wants of Christians in their social, evening, and missionary meetings, better than any heretofore published.

We particularly invite the attention of Ministers and Leaders to this book.

The "Social Psalmist" will be sold with or without the Appendix.

Large Type, Duodecimo, sheep, ... 50 cts.

Middle size, in sheep, ... 33 cts.

" " with Appendix, ... 44 cts.

Small or Pocket size, ... 25 cts.

Extra bindings of the above and the "Church Psalmist" in proportion.

Orders promptly supplied by the publishers, MARK H. NEWMAN & CO., 199 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK.
